Initiating pro-freedom litigation to protect against government overreach, special interest agendas and public union corruption and abuses

“UMLC is an essential tool in protecting and defending individual liberty, the free enterprise system, the Constitution, traditional values and institutions, and the rule of law in Minnesota and the region.”

—John Hinderaker, President, Center of the American Experiment

The Upper Midwest Law Center is a center-right, non-profit, public interest law firm founded in 2019 by Attorney Douglas P. Seaton. Before the founding of UMLC, citizens and businesses wronged by governmental agency overreach, public union corruption and misconduct by special interests relied upon private parties or pass-the-hat techniques to support their cases. Although these methods often worked, this was an inefficient system which often resulted in windfalls or shortfalls for the private law firms involved. UMLC’s lawyers work at lower costs without charge to clients, and legal recoveries are repurposed to fund additional litigation. UMLC works to change laws, rules and practices and fight unlawful actions which violate citizen rights and hamper business operations in Minnesota and beyond. Our lawsuits are vetted by our Lawyers Advisory Board, with some of the best legal minds in Minnesota. UMLC works cooperatively with Center of the American Experiment, “Minnesota’s Think Tank,” which offices right next door.

Our pro-liberty litigation agenda:

- Making new Janus freedoms real for teachers and government workers
- Protecting pipelines, mines, and other businesses and citizens from eco-terrorism
- Fighting against predatory dues-skimming practices by public employee unions
- Fighting divisive and vile Critical Race Theory indoctrination by schools and businesses
- Protecting Minnesota citizens against governmental encroachment on Constitutional rights
- Working to oust Bloomberg climate change activist attorney plants in Minnesota's AG office

Doug Seaton,

a long time Minnesota lawyer involved in public policy and employee rights cases against government agencies and public unions with his former firm, Seaton, Peters & Revnew, is the UMLC President, joined by retired attorney, Robin Kelleher, as treasurer.

Thank you for your interest in Upper Midwest Law Center. We hope you will help support our litigation on behalf of citizens and businesses whose civil liberties are under attack from the left. If you have questions or are interested in hearing more about UMLC, please contact Doug Seaton at 612-750-8368 or Doug.Seaton@UMLC.org.
