

UPPER MIDWEST LAW CENTER

The Upper Midwest Law Center exists to challenge government overreach, defend individual liberty, and uphold the rule of law. As a non-profit law firm, UMLC provides free legal services to those fighting against unconstitutional laws, viewpoint discrimination, and the misuse of taxpayer funds by public unions.

The Upper Midwest Law Center is a non-profit, public interest law firm founded in 2019 by veteran attorney Doug Seaton. We are dedicated to defending and advancing liberty, the rule of law, and traditional American values.

Before UMLC's founding, citizens and businesses fighting government overreach and public union abuses had to rely on a patchwork of support from private parties or ad-hoc fundraising. This inefficient system often led to unpredictable funding for critical litigation, leaving many without the legal representation they deserved.

UMLC's mission-driven model ensures our services are provided free of charge to clients. We strategically litigate to change unlawful laws, rules, and practices, with any legal recoveries reinvested to fund additional litigation. This ensures our work has a lasting impact, defending citizen rights and business operations across Minnesota and the Upper Midwest.

Every case is carefully vetted by our expert team of UMLC attorneys and Board members, who bring more than 200 years of combined legal and public policy experience to the table. We are also proud to work cooperatively with many other conservative and constitutionalist organizations to advance a pro-liberty agenda in Minnesota and the Upper Midwest.

Doug Seaton, President

Doug is the President and Founder of the Upper Midwest Law Center. Doug is a long-time Minnesota labor and employment law attorney who founded UMLC in 2019. He observed decades of left-wing special interest and public-sector union domination of Minnesota's government and concluded that Minnesotans needed a center-right public interest law firm to fight for the rule of law and against government abuse and overreach.
